SECTION IV: INFORMED CONSENT FOR SERVICES, PRODIGY RELEASE & CONSENT FOR RELEASE OF INFORMATION

The Prodigy Cultural Arts Program is a research-based prevention program that provides a safe arena where students learn communication, problem-solving and anger management skills through visual and performing arts. The program is funded by the Department of Juvenile Justice (DJJ). A designated staff member will explain the purpose, process and content of the program with the youth and his/her family upon admission.

_____ (Initials) I allow the information provided herein be used to complete enrollment requirements and assessments, and grant permissions for assessments to be conducted as part of the Prodigy Program. Information provided will be utilized to complete enrollment requirements with DJJ.

_____ (Initials) I authorize the Prodigy Program Staff to provide prevention services to my child throughout the duration of the program.

_____ (Initials) I understand that the Informed Consent is effective for one (1) year from the data of my signature. However, I may revoke consent orally or in writing any time prior to expiration.

_____ (Initials) I understand that this is a legally binding release made to the University Area CDC, Inc. (UACDC), DJJ and Prodigy Site operated by (name of the organization) _____. And, in consideration of allowing my child to enroll and participate in the Prodigy Program at any approved location, I hereby release the above named entities (comprised of the Prodigy Program, their employees and agents) from any and all liability, loss claim, damage, charge or expense that may arise from injury or harm to my child, or from damage to my property in connection with my child's enrollment and participation in the Prodigy Program.

SECTION V: YOUTH GRIEVANCE PROCESS

While in the Prodigy program, every youth and parent has access to a method to have a particular grievance considered rapidly, fairly and without reprisal. If a youth or parent has experienced a circumstance or action on the part of a Prodigy Staff in which they deem to be unjust, he/she may file a grievance following the process provided.

_____ (Initials) I have received and understand the youth grievance process.

SECTION VI: MEDIA RELEASE PARENT/GUARDIAN CONSENT

Effective for twelve months from date of signature below, I hereby voluntarily and without expecting reimbursement grant to the Prodigy Program of the University Area CDC, Inc. permission to use photographs and videos made of my youth during his/her participation in the program.
